

INDEX TO VOLUME XXXIV.

- Aislable, punishment of the robber, 913
 America, price of the necessaries of life in, 54; Extent of Emigration to, 74, 314, 324;
 Advantages of Living in, 76, 215, 315, 299, 539
 American and English Colonels contrasted, 77
 Baker, Letter to the People of Botley respecting, 571; Letter in the Times by, 572; Dispute with Mr. Cobbett respecting Paine, 580; Exposure of the rascally Tricks of, 591; a wretched Hypocrite, 591
 Bank, the, what it is, 168
 — Bubble, easy means of destroying the, 16, 42, 50, 217, 679, 1073
 — —, Measures to be adopted on the blowing-up of the, 603, 817, 838
 —, Cash Payments at the, consequence of the attempt to make, 81, 166, 861
 — Swindlers, Mr. Cobbett's Letter to the, 691; anticipated Judicial Examination of the, 919; Persons hanged or destroyed by the, 45, 1071
 — Notes, absurdity of inimitable, 470, 679, 708, 787
 — —, impossibility of lessening the amount of, 109, 114, 133, 160, 686, 994
 — Restriction, remarks on the, 14, 142, 776, 881, 1052; History of the, 894
 Bedford, Letter to the Duke of, 955
 Benbow, Evans, &c. &c. Messrs. Letters to, 1, 33; Remarks on the Subscription for, 2
 Big wigs and gowns, use of, 156
 Birbeck, Mr., Letters to, 603, 635; Erroneous Estimates of, 622, 625, 637, 643
 Birmingham Observations on Major Cartwright's Bill, 1107
 Blanketeers, Address to the, on the necessity of Grammar, 249; Short Letter to the, 826; Letter to them, on the blowing-up of the Paper Money, 827
 Boroughmonger Ruffians, ignorance of the, 8, 47, 122; Impudence of the, 237; Letter to the, 532; are incorrigible, 958; what Common Sense would lead them to do, 969
 Botley, Letters to the People of, 537, 571
 Brandreth, Mrs., should not be forgot in the subscription, 6; Mr. Cobbett's Letter to, 342
 Broom Corn, utility of, 655; Notice respecting, 1082
 Bull, Trial of John, 511
 Burdett, Sir F. mistake respecting active members, 189; should define Resistance, 193; not to be trusted, 198, 363; Letter to, and Answer from, the Rump, 328; Remarks on the Conduct of, 348; Ill-treatment of Mr. Hunt, 365, 409, 434, 732; Promise to strip him of his Jackdaw plumes, 414; his Conduct to Major Cartwright exposed, 1090
 Burnet the Author of the Funding System, 478
 Burrough, Judge, Letter to, on Miss Toker's Trial, 441; impudence of, to Miss Toker, 464
 Cartwright, Major, Letters of Mr. Cobbett to, 281, 313, 345, 371, 469, 1047; Attack on the Rump by, 320; Extract of a Letter by, 960; his Account of his Bill, 1102; his Address to the Electors of Westminster, 1081, 1113
 Castro, Marquis de, shameful Treatment of the, 952
 Catley, Mr., Speech of, 122
 Chalcraft and the Excisemen, 544
 Church Clergy, inutility of the, 555
 Cleary, Mr. Cobbett's account of, 302, 415; Dramatic Dialogue with Sir F. Burdett, 338; Contemptibility of, 374, 738; Letter of, in defence of himself, 402; Letter of, relating to Brandreth, 420; Exposure of, by Mr. Hunt, 490
 Cobbett, Mr., joy of the two Factions on his sentence, 10; Plagiarisms from, 869
 Cottagers, Plan for making them freeholders, 811
 Curtis, the beast of all beasts, 281
 Derbymen, object of the, 427
 Dudley and Empson, punishment of, a good precedent, 163
 Dungeon Parliament, demerits of the, 263
 Election, the general, Letter to Major Cartwright on the, 281
 Elliott, a poor creature, 1009
 Emigration, reasons against it, 316, 883
 Fearon's Falsehoods exposed, 754
 Finlay, Mr., danger of, 185

- Finerty, Mr., Letter to, 830
 Folkestone, Lord, Letter to, 987; Errors of, exposed, 991; on his Refusal to deliver Mr. Cobbett's petition, 1000
 French Revolution, idle talk about the, 1015
 Funds, History of the, 473
 Gold, impossibility of the Bank obtaining, 97, 132
 Grammar, Address to the Blanketeers on the utility of, 249; Reason which induced Mr. Cobbett to write on it, 235
 Hack Newspapers, Lies of the, 381, 472
 Hallet, W. Esq. Letter to, 395
 Harmonites, the Children of Mammon, 614
 Harrison, the Rev. J., and the Stockport Gentlemen, 667
 Henry VIII. seizure of Church Property, by, 847
 Hunt, H. Esq. Letters to, 121, 153, 185, 217, 469, 1047; his Action against Hobhouse, 132; Speech to the Bath Agricultural Society, 137; his first Conversation with Mr. Cobbett, 153; Conduct of the Rump to, 201; Vindication of, 297; Ill-treated by Sir F. Burdett, 365, 469, 484, 732
 Illinois, hardships of Settlers in the 605, 646
 Indemnification, to whom it must be made, 162
 Jack Harrow, Letter to, 473
 Jackson, W. remarks by, 311; Letter to Mr. Hunt, 496
 James, Mr. Letter to, on the Little Shilling project, 1051; Want of Originality in, 1053; absurdity of his plan, 1059
 Juries, former Errors of, 444; what is the Duty of, 507
 Jurymen, Letter to English, on Libel, 505
 King, infamous conduct of the Boroughmongers to the, 711
 Kingly government the best, 882
 Law, what is not, 169
 Libel, Letter to Jurymen, 505
 Liberty of the Press, Mr. Cobbett, on the 400
 "Lower Orders," superiority of Talent in the, 978
 Nagpies like Parsons, 555
 Malthus, Parson, villainy of, 854; Letter to, 1019; Abominable proposal of, 1023; Exposure of the Knavery and Folly of, 1026
 Manchester Cotton Spinners, Letter to the, 377
 ----- Weaver Boys, Letter to the, on Sir S. Romilly, 923
 Mill, advantages of a Home, 654
 Montrose, Duke of, atrocious Speech of the, 2764
 New York Evening Post, Mr. Cobbett's Letter to the Editor of the, 297
 ----- National Advocate, Mr. Cobbett's Letter to the, 754
 Parliaments have been Self-elected, 971
 Perry, Mr. Exposure of the Folly of, 123
 Poor, on the original Provision for the, 1035
 Population Acts, cheatery of the, 1046
 Puff-Out, on the, 16, 42, 50, 217, 679, 763, 1073
 Regent, the Prince, Letters to the, 699, 763, 795
 Revenge, folly of the common idea of, 448
 Romilly, Sir S. mistake of Major Cartwright respecting, 178; Letter to the Manchester Weaver Boys on the death of, 923; Coroner's Inquest on, 932; Remarks on the Evidence on the death of, 941
 Rump, the Conduct of the, to Mr. Hunt, 201; Major Cartwright's attack on the, 320; Remarks on the, 322, 345, 411, 751
 Salisbury, extract from Mr. Cobbett's Letter to the People of, 126
 Savings Bank, Letter on the Cheat of the, 473; Danger of, to the Poor, 486, 852
 Soldiers, probable conduct of the, 23
 Spencer, Lord, Speech of, in 1792, 69
 Stockport Meeting, Thanks of, to Mr. Cobbett, 669
 Suicide, remarks on, 928
 Sussex, Duke of, Letter to the, 57; Conversation of Mr. Cobbett with the, 63
 Tax-gatherers, sum swallowed up by the, 239
 Tierney, Hon. G. Letter to the, 89; Absurdity of Bank-protecting Bill Speech, 95
 Tithes unnecessary, 548
 Toker, Miss, prudence and spirit of, 442
 Treason Bill, origin and abominable nature of the, 701
 "Turn-Out," no offence, 385
 Turnpike Act, injustice of the, 1012
 Two Prices, consequences of, 159
 Unlawful Combination Act, remarks on the, 390
 Verses to the Children of "the Lower Orders," 275, 276
 Waithman, Mr., Character of, 291
 Walker, Mr. P., message to, 212
 Walter bribed by Pitt and Rose, 208, 714
 Westminster, Major Cartwright's Address to the Electors of, 1081, 1113
 Wiltshire Yeomanry Cavalry, stupidity and malignity of the, 181
 Windham, Mr. Cobbett's Letter to, in 1806, 803
 Wooler, J. shameful conduct of, 670
 Wright, rascality of, 741